

CENTRAL INTELLIGENCE AGENCY
PHOTOGRAPHIC INTELLIGENCE CENTER

Copy No. 47

This material contains information affecting the National Defense of the United States within the meaning of the Espionage Laws, Title 18, U.S.C. Secs. 793 and 794, the transmission or revelation of which in any manner to an unauthorized person is prohibited by law.

PHOTOGRAPHIC INTELLIGENCE BRIEF

SUBJECT : Chi-nan (Tsinan) Urban Area NO : B-1001-59
LOCATION : Shantung Province, China DATE: 20 May 1959
PHOTO DATA [REDACTED]
MAP DATA : ATMP [REDACTED]

Chi-nan (36°40'N/117°00'E) is an important transportation center located 230 miles south of Peiping, on the Tientsin/Pukow railroad. At Chi-nan the Shantung railroad, which serves the port of Ching-tao 190 miles to the east, joins the Tientsin-Pukow railroad. The population of Chi-nan was reported by Chinese Communist sources to be approximately 700,000 in 1958.

[REDACTED] aerial photography of Chi-nan has been studied and several changes in the railroad and industrial facilities were noted since [REDACTED] coverage. It is reported that the industrialization of Chi-nan has been recently increased and among the installations located in the city are the following:

Textile mills	Machine works
Motor vehicle plants	Diesel engine factory
Iron works	Farm implement plant
Chemical plant	Iron and steel plant
Arsenal	Thermal power plant
Locomotive repair plant	Cement plant
Rubber factory	Explosives plant

Requests for detailed information concerning items of intelligence interest in this area may be directed to PIC/CCS, Code 163 [REDACTED]

Declass Review by NIMA / DoD